

Her Say!

09 February 2010

Dear Members & Colleagues

We hope you enjoyed the summer break and festive season. The end of 2009 brought welcome news for a number of our members who we congratulate on their appointments: Mary Macken as incoming President of The Law Society of NSW, Anna Katzmann SC as judge to the Federal Court of Australia, and Prof Rosalind Croucher as the new ALRC President.

We invite you to join us for networking cocktails on Tuesday 23rd February at The Law Society of NSW at 5.30 for 6pm presentation 'Style Express', details and registration below.

Please visit our 2010 Event Schedule to view details as we firm up a number of events already in the planning, including our biennial 'Celebrating Women in the Judiciary' on 29th July.

The Australia Women Lawyers 3rd National Conference 6-8 August in Brisbane is now open – register by 26 February for the advance price! Click here for details or online at www.lexisnexis.com.au/AWL

We look forward to seeing you at an event soon.

Kind regards,
Mary

10 IN-SEASON DOUBLE PASSES! A SINGLE MAN

Torn apart by the shattering impact of the death of his long-time lover, college professor George Falconer (Colin Firth) experiences the most transformative day of his life, blending past and present, desire and despair, and discovering that love persists even after the object of love is gone. Set in a sun-drenched 1960s California coastal canyon, featuring revealing performances by Julianne Moore and Matthew Goode, A SINGLE MAN marks the breakthrough directorial debut of internationally influential American fashion icon Tom Ford. Targeting indelible images of love, loss and rebirth, the film is a personal testament, filled with deep emotional resonance.

Best Actor – Colin Firth – 2009 Venice Film Festival, Nominated for Best Actor (Colin Firth) – 2010 Academy Awards
